the top line

I'm a CPA who is out to reimagine the CPA firm. I have been in the industry for over 20 years, double majored in Accounting and Sociology, and am the managing partner of Rohloff Associates. I have clients all over the US, have won a handful of awards, and am a unicorn who loves numbers and culture.

I have guided businesses through pretty much every imaginable scenario and am Birkman Certified™ for growing High Performance Teams. I love to share my wisdom, insight, and experience of being CEO of an amazing team. If you tell me I can't do something, my next goal is to prove that wrong.

the bottom line

The bottom line - I'm obsessed with all the behavior tests (Achiever, Enneagram 3, Birkman Blue) and feel like my self awareness will never be fully complete. Coffee sustains me, I love to cook at the cost of pure kitchen destruction, and I consider Brene and Jen my BFF's (I will go dark when one of their new books comes out). I believe that grit and determination will win over smarts every day.

I am raising two phenomenal kids with my husband who is also an entrepreneur and a dog who thinks she's human. I don't pretend to have the home life and work life thing figured out. It's always a work in progress and I firmly believe in outsourcing what you can.

specialties

Now more than ever there is a need for business women to be financially savvy and understand the numbers in their organizations. Through Nikki's work, she can help elevate business leaders in these core areas:

Reading Financials | Tax Strategy | High Performance Team
Engaged Employees | Leadership | Setting Up Process | Building YOUR Way
Culture | Accounting | Business Strategy | Strategic Decisions
Organizational Effectiveness | Effective Hiring

Testimonial

I have had the great fortune of working with Nikki in a senior executive forum in which Nikki's insightful suggestions and feedback contributed to the success of many leaders in a variety of different businesses and industries. Nikki has a candid, warm and collaborative way of interacting that complements the deep knowledge and expertise that she brings to the table. I have witnessed Nikki lead with grace and strength, making tough decisions in the face of extreme adversity. She would be an asset to any organization as a consultant and advisor.

Over the past several years I've had the opportunity to work with Nikki in many different areas of my business. From in-depth tax and financial consulting, she's done for many of my clients, to education and coaching she's done for me directly as well as with my clients.

I've heard Nikki present on the Birkman Method and her passion shines through as she engages with participants and brings them along as she goes through the many layers of the process, the benefits experienced by teams that fully engage, and the empirical research behind the success of the Birkman Method.

She's curious, wants to help however she can and is just plain fun to be around. I'm looking forward to many more years of joining together with Nikki in the spirit of teamwork to help our clients achieve their long-term goals and objectives.
